

Mission of Wood Badge

The mission of Wood Badge is to inspire and train adults to achieve the mission and aims of the BSA through premier leadership training that sets the example for youth empowerment to enrich the world.

The Primary Purpose of Wood Badge

The primary purpose of Wood Badge is to strengthen Scouting in our units, districts, and council. Every youth deserves a well-trained leader.

It's not about the beads, it's about the units!

What People are Saying

"What an excellent time! I am so appreciative of all the efforts made by the great, knowledgeable, supportive, trustworthy-to-reverent staff."

"It was one of the best Scouting experiences I ever had!"

"I wish I had attended Wood Badge earlier. This has really helped me. Thank you!"

"The most worth while thing is to try to put happiness into the lives of others."

Why Join Wood Badge

Wood Badge provides dedicated Scouters with the concepts, tools, and methods needed to be effective leaders.

Wood Badge creates a structured opportunity to develop and apply critical leadership skills.

Attending Wood Badge will make your Scouting job easier. Attendees gain an in-depth understanding of the skills of leadership. The skills you learn will help you become a more effective leader in Scouting, your career, your family, and your community life.

Who Can Attend

To attend a Wood Badge course, Scouters must:

- Be registered adult members of the Boy Scouts of America.
- Have completed basic training courses for their Scouting position.
- Be capable of functioning safely in an outdoor environment. All participants are required to complete the Annual Health and Medical Record forms A, B, and C.

What Can You Expect

As a result of attending Wood Badge you will:

- Acquire a global view of Scouting as a family of interrelated, values-based programs providing age-appropriate activities for youth.
- Become familiar with contemporary team leadership concepts.
- Experience the stages of team development and practice leadership approaches appropriate for those stages.
- Have a great deal of fun in the company of interesting, like-minded individuals.
- Develop a renewed commitment to provide Scouting with the best possible leadership.
